If men would use EVERY WEEK ANTI-SEPTIC OIL SHAMPOO instead of the alkali shampoos and soaps which are so commonly used, they would preserve their hair rather than invite baldness. EVERY WEEK SHAMPOO dissolves and removes the dandruff (dry or oily), opens the hair cells, feeds and strengthens the hair roots and leaves the hair clean, soft, fluffy, silky and the scalp healthy. A weekly application keeps the scalp clean, healthy and the hair in excellent condition.

The perfect shampoo for men, women and children. A large bottle (64 teaspoonfuls) 50c at

TO END CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or head noises go to Wetzel's Catarrh Medicine Store or any other drugist and get 1 ounce of Purmunt (double strength), and add to it 1 pint of hot water and 1 ounce of granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Any one who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.—Adv.

Hairs Quickly Vanish After This Treatment

(Helps to Beauty)

Science has aided in simplifying the banishing of hairy growths from the face, and according to a beauty specialist, the most effective treatment yet devised consists of applying a delicate paste to the hairy surface for 2 or 3 minutes. The paste is made by mixing some water with a little powdered delatone. When this paste is removed and the skin washed every trace of hair has vanished. Be sure to get real delatone.—Adv.

"THE LITTLE GIRL NEXT DOOR"

"The Little Girl Next Door," a picturization of the findings of the Illinois vice commission which made an extended investigation of vice and vice conditions in the city of Chicago and other Illinois cities, was presented at the Oliver theater yesterday and last night. It will be on exhibition there for four more days.

The stories told by several girls who appeared before the commission are shown in detail in the pictures. The cause of their downfall and how they were trapped and led into the life in the underworld are well illustrated. The workings of the white slavers and the life the girls were forced to live are well pictured.

The pictures keep away from the one failing that pictures of this sort generally show, in most of them the lesson seems to be the thing and incidents not necessary are brought into the picture. In an effort to make it strong they make them too strong with the result that the picture fails of its purpose which is to serve as a warning and instead appeals through its sensational feature, creating instead of destroying, the appeal to the underworld life.

But in "The Little Girl Next Door" great care has been taken that no foreign scenes or unnecessary incidents are brought in. The picture is not overdrawn. It paints the pitfalls that are set for the unwary and shows how they can best be avoided.

When it was proposed to run this picture in Chicago a bitter fight was waged to prevent its being shown, although it was recommended by leading clergymen and jurists. The main objection to the picture was that it played certain Chicago city officials too strong in the light of heroes. The exception was not to the picture but to the politics.

While attendance is limited to people over 21 years of age, there is nothing in the picture that a lad or young girl could not look at without being injured in any way morally. It paints a lesson, not so much for those who have reached the age of 21, for the victims are around the 17 year mark. It is a lesson that girls, if they ever need it, need before they are 21. It also should prove of benefit to youths below that age.

AT THE AUDITORIUM

Mabel Taliaferro, one of the most popular young stars of both the stage and screen, will be seen in the stellar role of "The Snowbird," a five part Metro wonderplay, which will be shown at the Auditorium today.

Edwin Carewe, the well known director and formerly a noted leading man on Broadway, who produced the picture, will also be seen in the leading male role. James Cruze, also an artist of merit, appears in a prominent role, and a strong supporting cast includes Walter Hitchcock, Arthur Evers, Warren Cook, John Melody, Kitty Stevens and other players of recognized ability.

"The Snowbird" is one of the strongest photodramas that Metro has offered this season. Aside from a strong story, the scenes are laid in an unusually picturesque locality, that of the Hudson bay district of Canada, which has afforded opportunity for really wonderful photography. Miss Taliaferro has a role that calls for the fullest display of rare versatility. She is first seen as a society girl, with not a single worry in the world. Then her father meets with reverses in Wall st. and becomes involved in a complication, which promises to result in his imprisonment. Miss Taliaferro goes to his rescue, and in attempting to clear his name in a timber deal in the Canadian northland, she is obliged to essay the role of a boy. This is the first time that this charming young actress has been seen in the part of a boy, and a delightful and vivacious youngster she makes.

AT THE STRAND

Bert Bertram and his Broadway Musical Stock company in "A Topsy Turvy Honeymoon," an entire new show is the attraction at the popular Strand theater tonight. Mr. Bertram plays the leading role and has made a hit with the lovers of good clean comedy in South Bend. Miss Katherine Ross, the prima donna has a very pleasing personality, and has been termed "The Big Women with the big voice." A big beauty chorus of pretty damsels who can sing and dance.

AT THE LANSALLE

particularly noted for her beauty and the exquisite gowns which she wears and in this photodrama she is given a splendid opportunity for both. She appears in a new creation in every scene and there is a consistent plot which is filled with interesting situations and appealing moments "The Tangled Web" is the title of the third episode of the "Who's Gilty?" series which will also be shown on today's program featuring Anna Nielson and Tom Moore.

AT THE ORPHEUM

The headline position on the new bill which opens at the Orpheum today is taken by Claire Vincent a skillful dramatic actress in a new playlet entitled "The Recoil." The Five Kitamuras, Japanese acrobats, are also prominently featured, presenting their foot juggling specialty. Meolin, Watts and Towns, three men with particularly pleasing voices will offer a comedy singing and talking act entitled "Before and After." "The Follis Sisters and LeRoy, known as the "Gingerbreads," will introduce dancing novelties, and the bill will be opened by Alfred Farrell, an artist who draws black and white sketches.

DISCUSS FOOD PROBLEM

Kaiser Receives All Ministers and Reichstag Head.

BERLIN, May 22 (by wireless, via Tuckerton, N. J., May 25, delayed).—Under the head important political conferences, the emperor today received at luncheon all the imperial and Prussian ministers and the president of the reichstag and Prussian chambers. The imperial chancellor also had a confidential conference with the leaders of the various reichstag parties. The ostensible purpose of these conferences was to discuss thoroughly the forthcoming measures respecting the so-called food dictatorship.
